

Sandringham Association of Royal Warrant Holders

Announcing Lee Dawson's President Weekend 2023 Friday 21st to Sunday 23rd April | The Elvetham Hotel, Hampshire

Friday Evening

Join us in The Elvetham Hotel for an evening buffet, catch up with friends and more....

Saturday Morning

A guided tour of the Royal Military Academy, experiencing the rich history and heritage of the British Army. You will experience a real insight into the British Army and how it trains its Officers reputed to be the best in the world. There will be lots of surprises whilst on the tour. The morning will culminate in a brief given by a senior member of the Army on the Army Benevolent Fund.

Saturday Evening

You will join our President and official guests in the Indian Army Memorial Room in Old College for a Full Regimental Dinner, including all the Pomp & Circumstance that you would associate with such a prestigious occasion.

Sunday Morning

The Royal Garrison Church of All Saints is the home church for all Military Personnel serving in Aldershot and is a church which whole-heartedly welcomes veterans from all three services. It is steeped in military history and is commonly known as the Church of the Para's where every soldier who fell during WW2 is remembered with a kneeler.
