

CHARITY BOWLS TOURNAMENT

The 2022 annual Bowls Tournament took place on Sunday 14th August at Runcton Holme

On another extremely hot day, members gathered at Runcton Holme Bowls Club for the annual Bowls Tournament. Despite a number of cancellations due to the thought of playing in such heat, those hardy souls who attended enjoyed a quintessentially English afternoon.

Along with the fun games, a shortened elite game was played for the Trophy between SARWH and Runcton Holme Bowls Club, and much to everyone's surprise, and after a very close match, SARWH won.

Taking part for the SARWH elite team were:

- Nick Osborn - Hovel Ltd
- Paul Hyam - Abels Moving Services
- Simon McCarthy - D & F McCarthy Ltd

Against Runcton Holme Bowls Club team:

- Jenny and Adrian Baxter
- Pauline Day

Valerie's delicious homemade cakes were served with tea by the Bowls Club. After the matches and games had been completed everyone enjoyed a superb early evening meal. The winners of the various competitions were:

- The Spider – Karen Osborn SARWH
- Ladies Long Shot – Carolynne Cooper Runcton Holme
- Gents Long Shot – Andrew Marzolima SARWH
- Bowling for Breakfast – Jayne Chapman Runcton Holme
- The Ribbon – Claire Hyam SARWH

The presentation of the winners' medals and raffle prizes drew to a close a perfect Sunday afternoon.

The afternoon, together with a raffle raised £500 for the President's Charity 2022, the Norfolk Blood Bikes.
